A Little Bit About Me...

I've been designing for 4 years. I started out in GIMP one summer, and I had to find a way to keep designing. My career goal is to become a book cover designer; it would bring together two things I love - design and books! Some of my outside interests are Photography, Drawing, Writing, Reading, and Crochet.

Design Like Mad 2016 Volunteering for Operation Fresh Start Team

- Design Like Mad hosts 12-hour design marathons for local non-profits
- I was part of a team that worked with Operation Fresh start. I created 3 posters helping advertise their new campaign to serve twice as many at risk youth.
